Take the quiz below and tally up how many of each letter you select. When you're done, visit the article again and see which social networking site inspires your interior design!

1. When you get dressed in the morning, what do you reach for in your closet?
  - A. A classic preppy look, with lots of navy blue and white, perhaps with some boat shoes and collared shirts tossed on.
  - B. Delicate and graceful pastels, especially anything in shades of sky blue, lavender, pale green
  - C. Basic and traditional neutral shades like white, gray, and black, with a pop of bold or bright color in your shoes, scarf, or jewelry.
  - D. A cozy oversize knit sweater with a warm scarf, leggings or shorts, and boots.

2. What movie were you the most excited for this past summer?
  - A. Bridesmaids - The band of friends was absolutely hilarious, and you loved how much the bridesmaids adored Lillian and how far they went to make her wedding perfect.
  - B. The Hangover Part 2 - Zach Galifianakis' one-liners had you on the ground laughing, and you probably quoted the movie for a week after you saw it.
  - C. Crazy, Stupid, Love - It might just have been an excuse to stare unblinkingly at Ryan Gosling's abs, but you loved this movie for its modern twist on a traditional love story.
  - D. Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 2 - You probably dressed up and saw it at midnight, because this classic movie will go down in the halls of canonical film forever.

3. Fall's crisp chill is here--what does your perfect autumn day look like?

- A. Pumpkin carving, pie eating, and searching for that perfect cider donut!
- B. Bundling up in a cozy scarf and quoting Robert Frost to all your friends.
- C. Going for a foliage walk, or even just breathing in the brisk air during a light jog.
- D. Grabbing your camera and taking photos of fall's multicolored beauty.

4. Halloween is just around the corner, what are you dressing up as?

- A. A group costume with friends, something fun and cute like being candy bars or crayons.
- B. Your favorite celebrity--as soon as you can find a four-foot pickle on a stick, your Snooki costume is in the bag!
- C. Something unique to your personality, keeping it simple and elegant, like a snowflake or a peacock.
- D. Something hilarious and quirky, like being a ketchup bottle, or wearing an enormous handlebar mustache and telling everyone you "mustache" them a question.

5. What do people immediately see when they first step into your room or apartment?

- A. Framed photos of you with your friends and family, and cozy places to sit and chat.
- B. Typography and quotes on the walls or on small knickknacks like magnets and mugs.
- C. Minimalist, chic decor in colors that pop, with bright and eye-catching posters or wall hangings.
- D. Lots of creams, ivories, and navy blues, you're a fan of simple sophistication and comfortable living.

6. What sort of friend do you consider yourself?

- A. You always know where a good time will be, and you're the first person people go to when they want a fun night out.
- B. You're the friend who always knows the right thing to say, whether the situation calls for a pep talk or life chat.

- C. You have the fresh spin on ideas and discussions that your friends talk about over dinner or during late nights; you're always one step ahead of trends.
- D. You're the hilarious friend that everyone hangs out with, and you keep everyone rolling on the ground laughing with your sense of humor.

7. Which celebrity's closet would you most want to raid?

- A. Taylor Swift. Her casual, fun, down-to-earth vibe is exactly the look you want for yourself.
- B. Katy Perry. She has hilarious one-liners, and you love her fun, eclectic style.
- C. Blake Lively. You love the Gossip Girl star's modern spin on vintage classics.
- D. Emma Watson. Besides the obvious, who doesn't love the classic checked Burberry print she gets to wear?
